SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime, and shall observe the standard conditions of supervised release recommended by the United States Sentencing Commission and adopted by this Court.

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess controlled substances.

The defendant shall refrain from possessing firearms, destructive devices, and other dangerous weapons.

The defendant shall participate in an approved mental health treatment program for evaluation and/or treatment services determination. If deemed necessary, the treatment will be arranged by the officer in consultation with the treatment provider; the modality, duration, intensity of treatment will be based on the risks and needs identified. The defendant will contribute to the costs of services rendered by means of co-payment, based on his ability to pay or the availability of third party payment.

The defendant shall participate in an approved substance abuse monitoring and/or treatment services program. The defendant shall refrain from the unlawful use of controlled substances and submit to a drug test within fifteen (15) days of release on supervised release; thereafter, submit to random drug test, no less than three (3) samples during the supervision period and not to exceed 104 samples per year accordance with the Drug Aftercare Program Policy of the U.S. Probation Office approved by this Court. If deemed necessary, the treatment will be arranged by the officer in consultation with the treatment provider. The defendant is required to contribute to the cost of services rendered (co-payment) in an amount arranged by the Probation Officer based on the ability to pay or availability of third party payment, as approved by the court.

The defendant shall participate in a program or course of study aimed at improving educational level and/or complete a vocational training program. In the alternative, he shall participate in a job placement program recommended by the Probation Officer.

The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Officer access to any financial information upon request.

The defendant shall perform 300 hours of unpaid community service work during the supervision period at a private non-profit or public facility to be selected and under such arrangements as the Probation Officer of the court may determine.

The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicles, papers, computers, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects (as defined in Title 18, Section 1030(e)(1), to a search at any time, with or without a warrant, by the probation officer, and if necessary, with the assistance of any other law enforcement officer (in the lawful discharge of the supervision functions of the the probation officer) with a reasonable suspicion concerning unlawful conduct or a violation of a condition of supervised release. The probation officer may seize any electronic device which will be subject to further forensic investigation/analysis. Failure to submit to such a search and seizure, may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other residents or occupants that their premises may be subject to search pursuant to this condition. In consideration of the Supreme Court's ruling in Riley v. California, the court will order that any search of the defendant's phone by probation, while the defendant is on supervised release, be performed only if there is reasonable articulable suspicion that a specific phone owned or used by the defendant contains evidence of a crime or violation of release conditions, was used in furtherance of a crime, or was specifically used during the actual commission of a crime.

The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample as directed by the U. S. Probation Officer, pursuant to the Revised DNA Collection Requirements, and Title 18, U.S. Code § 3563(a)(9).
